

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: BHACF: Regina Jahr 718-0112

Elks Theatre and Faces Magazine Announce Second Annual Faces Live Variety Show to benefit RC Schools Music Education

Rapid City, S.D.—Some of the Black Hills most popular entertainers will take the stage at the Elks Theatre in downtown Rapid City for the second annual Faces Live Variety Show and Benefit on Thursday, February 26, at 7:30 p.m. This year's show will benefit the Rapid City School's Music Education Fund at Black Hills Area Community Foundation.

Hosted by filmmaker twins Michael and Marc Linn, this year's show will feature the talents of the Hill City Slickers, Corduroy Vinyl, Steve Thorpe, Paige McPherson, Clayton and Anella Southwick, Linda Hasselstrom, Donnie Williams, Bob Fahey and James Van Nuys—all of whom have been featured on the pages of Faces Magazine over the past year.

“Our theme is ‘you’ve read their stories, now watch them do their thing,’” said Faces co-publisher and editor Beth Palmer. “What we aim for in these shows is a nostalgic nod to the great variety shows of the sixties and seventies we grew up with—like Carol Burnett, the Smothers Brothers and Ed Sullivan. In addition to the great entertainment, you will want to come to this show just to see what Marc and Michael will come up with on stage. Had they not gotten into movies, these two could have been comedians.”

The Rapid City Schools Music Education Fund was established by the Black Hills Area Community Foundation (BHACF) in 2008 to support elementary band and orchestra programs in the Rapid City schools. To date, $165,000 has been distributed to the Rapid City School District from this fund. Through its tax-exempt charitable status, BHACF enables people with philanthropic interests to easily and effectively support the issues they care about and programs that improve the quality of life in the Black Hills. For more information on BHACF, contact Regina Jahr, Executive Director at (605) 718-0112 or visit our website at www.bhacf.org.

Tickets to the Faces Live Variety Show are $15 in advance, $20 day of show, and are available at the Faces office inside James Van Nuys Gallery at 524 Seventh Street, Rapid City, at the Elks Theatre, 512 Sixth Street, Rapid City or online at www.elkstheatre.com.