Black Hills Area Community Foundation Invites All to Ribbon Cutting and Reception for New Board of Directors

The Black Hills Area Community Foundation (BHACF) will hold a ribbon-cutting ceremony in conjunction with the Rapid City Chamber of Commerce at its office on Thursday, October 19, 2006 at 11:00 a.m. BHACF office is located at 628 ½ Sixth Street, Suite 204, Rapid City, South Dakota. The ceremony will officially welcome newly elected members of the BHACF Board of Directors. They are: Pat Wyss, Chairman, Eric Abrahamson, Senator Stanford Adelstein, Arlene Ham Burr, Jovayne Cappa, John Carlson, Jon Dahlstrom, Susan Johnson, Kay Jorgensen, Bill Masterson, Bruce Rampelberg, Haven Stuck, Sharon Warner, and Luke Yellow Robe.

Members of the Rapid City Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors will also participate in the event. The public is invited.

The Black Hills Area Community Foundation was created by and for the people in the Black Hills area. Through its tax-exempt charitable status, it enables people with philanthropic interests to easily and effectively support the issues they care about and programs that improve the quality of life in the Black Hills. Such participation can occur immediately or over time through estate planning. Formerly the Rapid City Foundation, BHACF has an endowment fund and has also assisted as a pass-through vehicle for charitable giving to various community projects over the last 18 years.
